ATTENTION: The ToolBank is here to support the community. Our tools and equipment are available to all organizations providing critical services during this crisis. Whether it is first responders who are using pop-up testing sites or organizations issuing food and supplies to families practicing self-isolation. If there are organizations supporting this work and need our equipment, we are here for them. Spread the word and have organizations call us at 704-469-5800 or go to www.charlotte.toolbank.org to become a member.
